ABSTRACT

This report focuses on community college credit enrollments in Iowa for fiscal year 1998 (July 1, 1997 through July 1, 1998). Campus enrollments are shown as percentages of state total, and credit enrollments are broken down by race/ethnicity, gender, residency, and age as well as by program type (vocational, college parallel, career option, or unknown). Findings include: (1) annual unduplicated credit enrollment totaled 91,699; (2) Des Moines Area, Kirkwood, and Eastern Iowa community colleges accounted for 47% of total state enrollment; (3) 58% of students were female; (4) 59% of students were between the ages of 17 and 24; (5) student average age was approximately 26, with a median in the range of 24 to 25; (6) 57% of students were enrolled in a college parallel program; (7) 93% of community college students were Iowa residents, as compared with 75% at the regents universities and 57% at private colleges and universities; (8) 34% of all credit students enrolled in Iowa postsecondary institutions in the fall of 1998 were enrolled in community colleges; and (9) 50% of the 20,667 new freshmen in Iowa colleges and universities were enrolled at public community colleges in fall of 1998. Contains five graphs and one table. (PGS)

The Iowa Department of Education has the capability of annualizing community college enrollment through the development and implementation of the community college MIS (Management Information System). For the first time, the Department of Education is able to report statewide community college unduplicated credit enrollment across the academic terms of a given fiscal year. This enrollment is more reflective of the changes which take place in a community college student body during the course of a year.

This report is focused on the community college credit enrollments and is designed to spotlight the community college demographic information generated from the statewide community college MIS system. These data are for fiscal year 1998 (July 1, 1997 through June 30, 1998). Future reports utilizing MIS generated data will include non-credit hours, human resource information, student awards, and facilities and fiscal information.
